

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

Charles Edward Pollock

1. Though trou-bles per-plex you, Dis-heart-en and vex you, Re-tard-ing your
 2. The task may be teas-ing, The du-ty un-pleas-ing, But he who con-
 3. Mis-for-tunes un-count-ed Are of-ten sur-mount-ed, If on-ly we pro-gress in som-ber ar-ray; To shrink from with ter-ror Is fronts it will soon win the day; The fight is half o-ver When quit not the field in dis-may; Then one more en-deav-or, Re-sure-ly an er-ror, For where there's a will there is al-ways a way.

 once we dis-cov-er That where there's a will there is al-ways a way.
 mem-ber-ing ev-er, That where there's a will there is al-ways a way.

There's a way, there's a way, Wher-ev-er there's a will there's a way.
 There's a way, there's a way, there's a way, there's a way.

way, There's a way, there's a way, Wher-ev-er there's a will there's a way.
 there's a way, There's a way, there's a way, there's a way.