

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

Charles Edward Pollock

1. Though trou-bles per-plex you, Dis-heart-en and vex you, Re-tard-ing your
 2. The task may be teas-ing, The du-ty un-pleas-ing, But he who con-
 3. Mis-for-tunes un-count-ed Are of-ten sur-mount-ed, If on-ly we pro - gress in som - ber ar - ray; To shrink from with ter - ror Is fronts it will soon win the day; The fight is half o - ver When quit not the field in dis - may; Then one more en - deav - or, Re - sure - ly an er - ror, For where there's a will there is al - ways a way.

once we dis - cov - er That where there's a will there is al - ways a way.
mem - ber - ing ev - er, That where there's a will there is al - ways a way.

There's a way, there's a way, Wher-ev-er there's a will there's a way.

19

way, There's a way, there's a way, Where-ev-er there's a will there's a way.
there's a way, There's a way, there's a way,