With Horse and Hound

H. L. D'arcy Jaxone (d. 1915)

Alfred J. Caldicott (1842–1897)

Allegro vivace (♩. = 116) ff Ta·ran·ta - ra, Ta·ran·ta - ra, Ta·ran·ta - ra, Ta·ran·ta - ra_____

1. For horse and hound the
2. The fox is found, the horn doth sound, Ta·ran·ta - ra, Ta·ran - ta - ra, Ta·ran·ta - ra, ta - ra.__ The horn doth horn doth sound, Ta·ran·ta - ra, Ta·ran - ta - ra, Ta·ran·ta - ra, ta - ra.__ The horn doth sound For horse and hound, Taranta - ra, Ta·ranta - ra, Ta·ranta - ra, ta - ra. So the dogs be - sound, For the fox is found, Taranta - ra, Ta·ranta - ra, Ta·ranta - ra, ta - ra. To be in at the gin to bark and bay, And the hors - es__ am - ble a - long the way, While the death the hunt-ers ride, And skim like the wind o'er the coun-try side, For the red - coats mus-ter in strong ar - ray, They mus-ter in strong ar - ray, Taranta - ra.__ A-brush is the Queen of Beau-ty's pride, The Queen of Beau-ty's pride, Taranta - ra.__ A

Allegretto (♩ = 138)

hunt-ing we will go,____ A-hunt-ing we will go,____ Through ma-ny a co-zy cov-ert, For the scent is keen I trow,____ A - hunt-ing we will go,____ A-hunt-ing we will go,____

_With horse and hound, where game is found, A - hunt-ing we will go, Ta-ran-ta - ra.____